

A detailed charcuterie board is presented on a rustic wooden surface. The board is artfully arranged with various cured meats, including salami and prosciutto, alongside several types of cheeses. Fresh fruits like strawberries, blueberries, and figs are scattered throughout. There are also bowls of nuts, breads, and small containers of dips. The entire scene is garnished with fresh herbs like rosemary. A white rectangular box with a thin black border is centered over the image, containing the text 'QUESOS & JAMONES' in a bold, black, sans-serif font.
